

BANKRUPTS MUST PAY

The Territorial Dues Are First, Says Estee.

Judge Estee reiterated the principle yesterday that discharges in bankruptcy do not release the bankrupt from the payment of Territorial taxes. In the case of Tan Wo of Hanapepe, Kauai, the court granted a discharge with a warning to the trustee that all taxes should first be paid, as the discharge did not effect a release from such debts.

The bankrupt was on the stand and testified that all the property owned by him was his store and contents at Hanapepe which were worth $1,000. His liabilities amounted to $4,000 and the witness said that business was so bad that he did not find it worth while keeping his store open. He said he was unable to state the amount of his taxes.

"The petitioner will be adjudged a bankrupt," said Judge Estee, "and the court will instruct the referee, and the trustee when he is appointed, that he must immediately cause to be marshaled sufficient assets to pay the taxes, for they must be paid first." The court can declare a bankrupt, except as to taxes due the Territory. All taxes must be paid first. A few days ago the court, upon discharging the referee in the case of J. A. Butterfield, found that there were but thirty-one dollars to pay taxes of over $200, and I don't want that to happen again."

Davis was referee in the case of Butterfield, the bankrupt, referred to by Judge Estee.

Band Notes.

The government band will be present the entire day at the boat races with headquarters on the Pacific Mall wharf. Excursions on a steamer will be made at intervals to serenade the boat clubs at their quarters and the judges. All the other wharves will be visited. Tomorrow afternoon a concert will be given at the Capitol grounds; Monday evening at Emma Square; Tuesday afternoon at the Queen's Hospital; Tuesday evening at the Hawaiian Hotel; Wednesday afternoon at the departure of the Alameda; Wednesday evening at Thomas Square; Thursday evening at Palama R. R. station.

SOCIETY

Regatta Day offers many opportunities for the lovers of open air events to bring society out in force today. There are the boat and yacht races, and the hospitable boat houses, to attract in the forenoon, and the polo game this afternoon.

Miss Mary K. Duncan and Mr. Harry P. Dwyer were married on Wednesday evening at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. William Mutch on Kalihi Road. The wedding was a pretty affair, the ceremony taking place in a flower-wreathed bower. A novel conceit was in having the names "Duncan" and "Dwyer" formed with electric globes, in the arch above the couple. When the clergyman pronounced them man and wife the name "Duncan" disappeared leaving only that of "Dwyer." After the reception the couple were driven to their new home on Makiki street. The bride is the niece of Mr. and Mrs. Mutch. The groom is connected with the firm of von Hamm-Young Company.

Miss Lily Spreckels, Mrs. W. G. Irwin and Miss Helene Irwin will leave Honolulu for San Francisco next week, after a delightful summer visit in the islands.

The cotillion to be given next Friday evening at the Moana Hotel under the direction of a number of leaders in Honolulu society, promises to be a pretty event and one which will set the pace for others to be given during the fall and winter. The favors are said to be charming and will undoubtedly be distributed among a large number, as "everybody" invited will surely attend. A dance for all commencing at nine o'clock will precede the cotillion which begins at eleven. It is said that matrons and debutantes alike are preparing for the event, lovely new gowns and everything is being done to make the initial gathering of the social set a marked success. The patronesses are Mrs. W. G. Irwin, Mrs. J. B. Castle, Mrs. F. M. Hatch, Mrs. Samuel Parker, Mrs. S. M. Damon, Mrs. M. C. Wildfield, Mrs. J. S. McGrew, Mrs. G. R. Carter, Mrs. F. M. Swamy, Mrs. E. F. Dillingham, Mrs. S. B. Dole, Mrs. Montague-Turner.

One of the society events next week will be the basket ball match to be held at the home of Miss Jennie Giffard on Friday, at 4 p. m. Both teams are under the direction of Miss Lilian Bacon. Miss Bacon is a gymnast and a worker in the interest of athletics for women, and has done much for Honolulu's athletically inclined girls in the past two years.

Miss Edythe Schmitt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Schmitt, who visited in Honolulu with the Harry Lewises a few months ago, is with her parents at the Palace Hotel. Miss Schmitt will return to New York City in October, where she will remain because of her literary work. Miss Schmitt has attracted much interest as a clever writer of short stories and is now working upon more extensive ones.

The latest acquisition to social circles is Miss Anna Billings Griggs, daughter of the millionaire lumber king of Tacoma, who is visiting the islands with her uncle, Senator Foster. She will remain indefinitely. Miss Griggs is a great favorite in society and a lover of athletic sport. She has won six golf prizes within the last few months and Californians hoped that she would be among the competitors at Del Monte recently, but she could not be persuaded. She won the championship of the Pacific and Northwest Gold tournament at Portland.

"Rosebank," the beautiful Nuuanu valley home of Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Schaefer was brilliant last evening with its floral decorations and lights when Miss Irma Schaefer received the members of the Cathedral choir of St. Andrew's, Bishop and Mrs. Restarick and a number of invited friends. The gathering was in the nature of a musicale and an excellent program was given, the soloists of the choir rendering some beautiful selections. Following the feast of melody a delicious repast was served and the remainder of the evening spent in social intercourse, Bishop Restarick making a few remarks. The program rendered was as follows:

Piano Duet—"Hungarian Dances"..... Mrs. Atwood and Miss von Holt.
Song—"The Sweetest Flower that Blows"..... Hawley
Mr. Arthur C. Wall.
Song—"Dream of Paradise"..... Gray
Mrs. Folsom. Cello obligato by Wray Taylor.
Piano Solo—"Reminiscences of Austria"..... Rubenstein
Mrs. Atwood.
Song—"Selected".....
Mr. H. E. Herzer.
Song—"The New Kingdom"..... Tours
Miss von Holt.
Flute obligato, J. H. d'Almeida; Cello obligato Wray Taylor.
Duet—"From Robin Hood"..... De Koven
Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Elston.
Song—"The Storm Flood"..... Roeckel
Mr. D. W. Anderson.

The Ahlo mansion was ablaze with Chinese lanterns last Saturday evening, the occasion being a dinner tendered to ex-Senator and Mrs. John M. Thurston by the Chinese Society in recognition of the Senator's favorable attitude toward the Chinese. The menus were unique, being in Chinese, French and English, and the genuine Chinese dinner comprising most wonderful concoctions, was thoroughly enjoyed. Magnificent hangings of embroidered silks adorned the dining rooms, and flowers composed of paper were strung about the rooms where palms, ferns and carnations were placed in lavish profusion. Many toasts were given, and the dinner, which lasted nearly four hours, was further enhanced by clever speeches by Senator Thurston, Mr. Anthony Ahlo and several Chinese gentlemen. The guests were Senator and Mrs. Thurston, Judge and Mrs. Highton, Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Hawes, Jr., Dr. and Mrs. Howard Humphris, Mr. and Mrs. Bunker, Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Ahlo, Mr. and Mrs. L. Ahlo, Mr. Geo. Kim, Dr. Li of the Chinese Consulate, Mr. Furman, Mr. Girvin and about forty members of the Chinese Society.

Following the dinner this evening at the Hawaiian Hotel a dance will be given on the Waikiki lanais in honor of Regatta Day. The management has extended an invitation to the townsfolk who always find a welcome at the hostelry.

Success

Has often begun with a new suit of clothes; you certainly cannot expect business success if you are poorly dressed; yet it is not at all necessary to spend a lot of money on your apparel in order to be as well and stylishly dressed as your fashionable neighbor. You may not know it, but it is a fact, that many of the best dressed business men in this town have worn the for years in preference to having them made to measure, for they secure the late styles, perfect fit, and obviate the innumerable "try-ons," and possible disappointment in the end; besides they know they have exactly the same quality at about half the expense.

Why don't you form the "Stein-Block habit"? It will save you money and preserve your self-respect.
